UPCOMING EVENTS

Dear St. Andrew's Family,

I'm sure the news of my new call to downtown Los Angeles took many of you by surprise, and we are already receiving many notes expressing a mix of sadness and excitement for us in this new adventure. This call has surprised both Kati and I, too, as God has opened our eyes and hearts for the community in downtown LA over the past few months. It became clear after I preached in January on Jeremiah 29:7 & 11 that we needed to be open to God's call to "seek the shalom of the city." We get to live out the 7-11 Principle I challenged the congregation with. I should be more careful what I preach on in the future!

We would have liked to share this news with you in person at Wednesday, March 2, Town Hall meeting, but Kati's grandma passed away and we were in Northern California for the memorial tribute.

We've had such a wonderful experience being part of this family and it's an honor to be considered one of your pastors. Our hearts will always keep a special place for St. Andrew's. Please pray for us as we candidate on March 13 and hopefully start by April 1; which gives us a few weeks lead time to prepare for Easter services there.

Before ending this message, Avery wanted to make sure you all knew that even though Mama's alma mater USC is nearby, she will always be a Bruin fan like her Dad!

We love you all, and we'll see you at St. Andrew's soon.

Serving Him,
Tim, Kati and Avery

small groups

Prepare to make the most of every opportunity through:

Find a group that is right for you. "Our group has grown closer through sharing our struggles and prayer needs. The exciting thing has been to see prayers answered. We are strengthened through studying the Bible. I love our experienced, well-seasoned group." If you would like to find a group, contact Malia, maliag@sapres.org or 949.574.2265.

Disciples of Jesus worship, prepare, serve, and lead. Small Groups help prepare us, propelling us forward so that we can pour out for others in service. In the coming month find one serve opportunity you can do with your small group or with your friends, or family. Find more on page 9.

March 6 - April 10 Rev. Kannwischer will be articulating our great permission within the great commission. What are we ultimately supposed to be doing as a church? How do we accomplish our mission on the broadest level? Why do we do what we do? When are we successful? Following Jesus Christ to lead lives that reveal God's goodness.

Real followers of Jesus are students of His Word and servants of His way. Study the weekly small group resources available online, www.sapres.org/resources. Participate in Wednesday Night Together Bible study on the book of Acts, see below for more details.

Living with unrestrained generosity:

All of the resources we have are gifts from God. All generations have engaged in Kingdom Assignments in the last few months, and thousands of dollars have been put to use for God's Kingdom. See pictures and hear life-giving stories on Highlights Live, our All-Church blog, www.highlightslive.com. God's generosity is truly our opportunity to live as we were intended. During this season we have been trying to connect our way of life to our way of life in Christ. Our Kingdom adventures continue as we live each day with unrestrained generosity.

Wednesday Night Together

Come to this weekly dinner and Bible study for the whole church community to eat, learn and fellowship as a family. There are programs offered for children, students, and adults.

New Direction from the Ancient Church

Acts 1-6

As the sermon series describes our congregation's mission for the future, our Wednesday Night Together Bible Study will learn from the Church's past. Join our new associate pastor, Rev. Dr. Bryan Eckelmann as we study the first six chapters of the Book of Acts. By looking back at the Church's beginnings, we can more clearly see the future God has for us.
