WORSHIP

Memorial Day Weekend with American Hero, Louis Zamperini

Louis Zamperini, a former American Olympic distance runner and World War II prisoner of war survivor, joined us for all three Sunday, May 29 services. Rev. Dr. Richard Kannwischer interviewed Mr. Zamperini about his inspirational story. After all three services, there was time to meet Mr. Zamperini and all our veterans posed for photos. We were very blessed to hear Louis Zamperini's story and are equally blessed to be surrounded by our amazing veterans who so willingly served our country.

Preschool Spring Event Update

The annual preschool Spring Event had a western theme with pony rides, cake walk, train ride, face painting and games galore. This year the co-chairs, Leslie Boyd and Ashley Rodi, wanted to add a fundraiser element to the Spring Event. With a silent auction, an opportunity drawing, and a chance to win dates with their teachers, the preschool parents raised over $7,000. The preschool can purchase a new playhouse, add to the scholarship fund, and order some safety equipment for the play yard. Thank you to all the preschool parents for their time and support.
