PREPARING OUR HEARTS FOR WORSHIP

It is not so much of our time and so much of our attention that God demands; it is not even all our time and all our attention; it is ourselves... What cannot be admitted. . . is the idea of something that is "our own," on which God has no claim. For He claims all, because He is love and must bless.

earnestness and in your love for us – see that you also excel in this grace of giving.
People: For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.
Leader: Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each person should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.
People: Thanks be to God for His indescribable Gift!
